BRILLANTS.

MOONLIGHT ON THE SEA.

O come at night, when all is calm,
Thea, dearest, come with me,
That we may feel the witching charm
Of moonlight on the sea.
The stars are on the deep below,
And in the skies above;
O come, and thus shall be the glow
That lights our word of love.

O come amid the hush of night,
Then, dearest, come with me,
And you shall taste the sweet delight
Of moonlight on the sea.
No billow curls the ocean's breast,
No cloud is in the sky;
O come, and thus shall be the rest
For which our bosoms sigh.

O come in such an hour as this
Come, dearest, come with me;
There is a sweet and tranquil bliss
In moonlight on the sea.
When stars are on the deep below,
And in the skies above;
Then come, and such shall be the glow
That lights our world of love!

It is re'ated of a Greek islander in exile, that, being taken to the vale of Tempe, and called upon to admire its beauty, he only replied, "The sea—where is it?" Upon this incident Mrs. Hemans has penned the following appropriate lines:

Where is the sea? I languish here—where is my own blue sea,
With all its barks in fleet career, and flags and breezes free?
I miss that voice of waves which first awoke my childish glee;
The measured chime, the thundering burst—where is my own blue sea?
O! rich your myrtle's breath may rise; soft, soft your winds may be;
Yet my heart within me dies—where is my own blue sea?
I hear the shepherd's mountain flute, I hear the whispering tree;
The echoes of my soul are mute—where is my own blue sea?

THE MORNING SUN STRIKING THE SEA OBLIQUELY.

The sea lies fresh with open eyes;
Night fears, and morning dreams,
Brooding like clouds on nether skies,
Have sunk below, and beams
Dance on the floor like golden fires.

Woman's Devotion.

The Columbus (Ohio) Gazette, in speaking of the trial and conviction of Charles Albaugh, in the United States Court, for robbing the mail, says the young man thus consigned to the penitentiary for a long term of years, is only 20 years of age. The events of the last few months will form an important chapter in his life's history. On Christmas day he eloped with his landlord's daughter, a Miss German, in her 16th year, went to Alexandria, Pa., and was married. An effort was made to keep the affair secret, but it was discovered by the girl's parents, who were highly incensed at their daughter's imprudence.—On the 28th of January, Mr. Prentiss, the U. S. Mail Agent, arrested Albaugh upon a charge of robbing the mail. He was taken to Cleveland, Ohio, convicted and sentenced before the U. S. Court, and upon reaching Cardington, on his way to the Penitentiary, the young wife came aboard the cars to bid farewell to her convict husband. The meeting was a painfully affecting one. She begged him to keep up his spirits, to make a firm resolve to do his whole duty while in prison. She vowed to stick to him, though all the rest of the world should forsake him; "for," said she, "Charley, we are both young; we have years of happiness in store for us, and when your time has expired, we can go to some other land where the offence will not be known—where we can live happily together and earn an honest livelihood." The poor girl nerved herself up to the task, and as she wiped the tears away from the cheeks of her young husband, she never whimpered. The car was full of passengers, who witnessed the scene with tearful emotions. The conductor, who, at the request of the officers had kindly delayed a few moments to give the young couple an opportunity of meeting each other, at last notified them that he could delay no longer, and the whistle gave notice that the cars were about starting. "Keep up your courage, like a man, Charley," said the fair heroine, and as she kissed his cheek, she turned to leave him, but, overpowered by her feelings that she had thus far kept under control, she fell fainting in the arms of the bystanders, who carried her gently into the station-house, and the cars rolled over the rail with increased speed to make up for the detention.

"MARY, my love, do you remember the text this morning?" "No, Papa, I never can remember the text, I've such a bad memory." "Mary," said her mother, "did you notice Susan Brown?"—"Oh, yes. What a fright! She had on her last year's bonnet, done up, a pea green silk, a black mantilla, brown gaiters, an imitation Honiton collar, a lava bracelet, her old ear drops, and such a fan! Oh my!" Mother—"Well, my dear, your memory is improving."

Henry Winslow.

"TRUE WORTH BETTER THAN RICHES."

"Henry," said Mr. Devenport, as in company with one of his clerks he left the house one morning, "you do not dress as well as the rest of the clerks, and did I not think that your salary was sufficient to provide you with more genteel habiliments I would increase it. How is it?"

"My salary is sufficient, sir," replied Henry in a voice choked with feeling, and his employer noticing his agitation, immediately changed the subject.

Mr. Devenport was a man of immense wealth and ample benevolence, a widower and the father of but one child, a daughter, who was the pride of his declining years.

She was not as beautiful as an angel, but the goodness, the innocence, and intelligence of her mind shone in her face. That the young clerk loved her could not be wondered at. Henry thought that any one deserved death who did not adore with him the idol of his silent affection. He was the very soul of honor, and, although he perceived that she was not indifferent to his merits, still felt that he must conquer the passion that glowed in his bosom; for he felt that he was pennyless, and the world looks upon poverty as it does on crime. Her father had ever treated him with considerate kindness, and he knew that he would never give his consent to the union with his daughter. "No, I will not be ungrateful," Henry muttered, and resolutely tried to quench the consuming fires of love that burned in his bosom.—Mr. Devenport was in the decline of life, and wished to see his daughter happily settled, and he was not long in suspecting that the cause of her indifference to others was love for Henry, from the delight she ever took in his presence, and the pleasure she evinced in having his praise. He forebore making any remarks, but was not as displeased at the supposition as the pennyless clerk would have imagined.—Mr. Devenport knew nothing of Henry's family, but his strict integrity, irreproachable morals, and pleasing manners all conspired to win his employer's respect, esteem and affection.

Soon after the conversation, with which this narrative opened, Mr. Devenport was called from home by business. On his return, in passing through a beautiful village, he alighted at the door of a cottage and requested drink.

The mistress, with an ease and politeness, which convinced him that her walk in life had not always been so humble, invited him in. He accepted her invitation, and entered. The furniture, which consisted of nothing more than was absolutely necessary, was so exquisitely clean that an air of comfort pervaded all. A feeble old man, trembling with the weight of years, and clothed in garments patched, worn, but clean, sat on one side of the room, sunning himself in the rays that fell through the bright window pane. Mr. Devenport inquired how old he was, and the female answered that her father was deaf, but he was 83 years old, and had survived all his children except herself, and she was a widow.

"Have you no children?" asked Mr. Devenport.

"I have one, sir, and he is our only support, for my health is so feeble, I can do but little, and my father being also blind, needs great care."

"Then your son has a large salary?"

"I do not know, sir, how much it is; he conceals the amount from me, but I am convinced he sends me nearly all."

"Pray what is his name?" inquired her visitor.

"Henry Winslow."

"Henry Winslow?" reiterated Mr. D., "why, he's my clerk! I left him at my house, not a fortnight since."

Here followed a succession of inquiries, which evinced an anxiety and solicitude which only a mother can feel, and as he entered his carriage, he mentally exclaimed, "Noble boy! And this is the reason that he dresses so poorly, and bears the jeers of his fellow clerks, that he may feed that poor, gray-headed, suffering old man, and cherish the mother who bore him. Noble boy! He shall not want wealth to enable him to distribute happiness. I believe he loves my daughter, and if he does, he shall have her—he shall—and my property into the bargain."

Mr. Devenport hastened towards home, determined to ascertain the true state of the hearts that beat in his two children's (as he now called them,) bosoms.

"So Henry's going to South America to try his fortune," said Mr. Devenport, entering his breakfast-room the morning after his arrival at home.

"Henry going to leave us?" said Mary, dropping her work, "going to South America?"

"To be sure—but what of that, my child?"

"Nothing, sir, nothing; only I thought we should be rather lonesome," she replied, turning away to hide the bright tears that could not be suppressed.

"Tell me girl," said Mr. Devenport, tenderly, "do you love him? Do not fear to lay your heart open to your father."

"I do, father; but not for the world would I have him think so, for he has never showed the same feeling for me; or, at least, expressed it," answered Mary.

* * * *

"Henry," said Mr. Devenport, entering his counting-room, "you expect to visit the country shortly, do you?"

"Yes, sir, in about four weeks."

'Could you defer your visit for a week or two longer?"

"Certainly, sir, if it will oblige you, I will with pleasure."

"It will certainly oblige me, for Mary is to be married in about six weeks, and I would not miss having you attend the wedding."

"Mary to be married, sir?" exclaimed Henry. Mary to be married! is it possible?"

"It's rather sudden, to be sure," replied his employer, "but I am an old man, and wish to see her have a protector; and, as the man is well worthy of her, I see no use in delaying the marriage, and I am glad you can stay to the wedding."

"I cannot stay, sir; indeed I cannot," said Henry, with stifled emotion.

"Why, you just said you could, man. You said it would be no inconvenience, and that you would wait with pleasure!"

Poor fellow—he had thought his passion subdued; but when he found Mary was soon to be another's, the latent spark broke forth into inextinguishable flames, and found it impossible to conceal his emotion. His employer regarded him with an earnest look—

"Harry, said he, "tell me frankly, do you love Mary?"

"Had I fortune such as she merits, and you, sir, have a right to expect, I should be the happiest of men to gain her love. But I must go, sir—I must go;" and he staggered toward the door.

"Then, Harry, my boy, she is yours!" cried the delighted old man, clapping him upon the shoulder. "Say not a word about property; 'true worth is better than riches.' I was only trying you, and Mary will never be married to any other than yourself."

For a moment Henry remained silent, but his looks spoke volumes. At last he spoke:

"I scorn to deceive you, sir. I have a mother and grandfather, who are——"

"I know it—I know all, Henry," said Mr. Devenport, interrupting him. "I know the reason of your parsimony, as I called it, and honor you for it. It was that discovery which first put it into my head to give you Mary."

Shortly after this conversation, Henry avowed his love, was accepted, and at the end of six weeks was married. And when, in after years, his grandchildren climbed into his lap, Mr. Devenport told them of his journey, his clerk, and how their father became his son-in-law and partner, and bade them ever remember that "that true worth is better than riches."

The Great Strasbourg Clock.

Henry C. Wright, in a lecture to the Liberator, thus describes the great clock in the Cathedral of Strasbourg:

"The priests and military have retired, and I am now sitting in a chair facing the gigantic clock, from the bottom to the top not less than 100 feet, and about 30 feet wide, and 15 deep. Around me are many strangers, waiting to see the working of this clock as it strikes the hour of noon. Every eye is upon the clock as it strikes the hour of noon. Every eye is upon the clock. It now wants five minutes of 12. The clock has struck and the people are gone, except a few whom the sexton, or head man, with a wand and sword is conducting round the building. The clock has struck in this way: The dial is some 20 feet from the floor, on each side of which is a cherub, or little boy, with a mallet, and over the dial is a small bell.—The cherub on the left strikes the first quarter, and that on the right the second quarter. Some 50 feet over the dial, in a large niche, is a huge figure of Time, a bell in his left, a scythe in his right hand. In front stands a figure of a young man with a mallet, who strikes the third quarter, on the bell in the hand of Time, and turns and glides, with a slow step, round behind Time. Then comes out an old man with a mallet, and places himself in front of him. As the hour of 12 comes, the old man raises his mallet, and deliberately strikes twelve times on the bell that echoes through the building, and is heard all round the region of the church. The old man glides slowly behind Father Time, and the young man comes on readily to perform his part, as the time comes round again. Soon as the old man has struck 12 and disappeared, another set of machinery is put in motion, some 20 feet higher still. It is thus: There is a high cross, with the image of Christ on it.—The instant 12 has struck, one of the apostles walks out from behind, comes in front, turns, facing the cross, bows, and walks on around to his place. As he does so, another comes out in front, turns, bows, and passes on. So twelve apostles, figures as large as life, walk round, bow, and pass on. As the last appears, an enormous cock, perched on the pinnacle of the clock, slowly flaps its wings, stretches forth its neck, and crows three times, so loud, as to be heard outside of the church to some distance, and so naturally as to be mistaken for a real cock. Then all is silent as death. No wonder this clock is the admiration of Europe. It was made in 1751, and has performed these mechanical wonders ever since, except about fifty years when it stood out of repair.

PUNCH TO AMERICA.—In allusion to the universal sympathy which the death of Havelock provoked in America, the London Punch says:

"We owe our cousins a hearty good wish in return for their display of kind feeling. We can hardly wish them better than this, namely, that America may always continue to act more wisely by her children than her mother England has too often done. In that case the Union will be spared the knowledge of the value of a single brave soldier at a time of unexpected disaster. And if it should ever happen—who knows?—somehow the English language, let it be spoken where it may, has a faculty of arousing the enemy of despotism—if it should ever happen that American bayonets should ever cross steel with the Arsenal of Cronstadt, or Toulon, or Vienna, may the gallant Republicans have a leader like Havelock, to show them how to improve their victory. British England and—Punch."

WIDOWS—Poor things! for the best wife in the world may be a widow, and no fault of hers—are subject to all manner of rude jokes. Samuel Veller was positively savage on 'em, and the old satirists are as fierce as dickens. A Western writer defines a widow as "one who knows whats' what, and desires further information on the subject." Saucy observation.

AN INSINIWATION.—A crusty old bachelor editor, "way down East," gets off the following outrage upon the fair sex:

"Why is the bridegroom of more value than the bride?"

Ans.—"Because the latter is always given away, and the former is always sold!"

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 30

CANDIDATES.

Two months hence the people of this State are to enter into an election: unimportant as a State Election, as a Judge for the Supreme Court is the only State Officer to be elected. Much more important is it to Districts, both Judicial and Senatorial, and to Counties, that should secure an efficient Representation in the Legislature.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, it is to be premised that the individual receiving the nomination of the Democratic State Convention, will be elected. Lawyers, or those learned in the Law, are only, eligible to the position. The antecedents of professional action, or in other words, whether the candidate has acted as counsel for this, that or other parties—for Fremont, or somebody else—should not enter into the consideration of the Delegates to the Convention.—Present fitness should alone be considered.

Locally, as a matter of course, candidates for positions are begin ning to bud and blossom. The frost of the Democratic Convention, to be held on the 10th of July, will wilt many of the aspiring, while others will receive sunshine, dung and dew from the same source. For District Judge, of the 13th Judicial District, there are two candidates to be before the Democratic Convention, and the third, the present incumbent, independent.

For Senator from this, Merced, Fresno, and Tulare Counties, there are but two candidates. Their claims are to be submitted to the Convention, and the contest between them is in the primary election of Delegates to said Convention. It is a detestable mode, to say the least of it. State Conventions may be proper and right. There the true voice of the party may be heard. But in the circumscribed space of a District or County, where effort will stock every poll in primary elections, it is very much to be doubted whether the behests of party are to be observed. To vote for the man best qualified to fill the office, is but the commonest kind of common sense, prostituted and perverted though it often is, because of party allegiance.

Candidates for the Assembly are numerous. All, so far as known, propose to be weighed in the scales of the Convention. Most of them are consequently at work to obtain the requisite avoirdupois weight to overcome obstacles through the medium of primary elections. Mene, mene, tekel, will be written against the names of most of the crowd, and much disappointment and hard swearing will consequently ensue.

Pledges of Representative Candidates will be required. One of which will be that of favoring the establishment of a new County between the Merced and Tuolumne Rivers, to be called Yo Semite. The support of the voters in that part of this County to the northward of Merced River, is conditional in this respect. These pledges have been generally given by candidates, as is believed. Another pledge required, by a portion of the Democratic party, will be an adhesion to a belief in the doctrines of the Miners and Settlers. A portion of this party consider their tenets and creed as paramount to the gospel obligations of Democracy. They will support anybody else, even a Republican, rather than a Democrat who is opposed to their construction of Miners and Settlers Rights—though he be nominated by the Democratic Convention. This party is new, and its organization does not probably extend beyond the limits of this County. Its origin is involved in some obscurity and that it is strictly the embodiment of Miners and Settlers, without a very weakening alloy, is not the truth. The name, Miners and Settlers, is attractive and potent; these two classes constitute the basis of the State superstructure, and their interests should be regarded and protected. But in this party is every element that enters into the construction of any party; and it is very much doubted whether the interests of the Miners and Settlers are advanced by their advocacy to a greater degree than by the old-fashioned Democratic party. We know little of them, however, and therefore will not judge. We did attend one meeting of the Association, and heard speeches, the general character of which, as Mrs. Partington would say, was "very excremental," and we say disgraceful. The vigilante complexion of the movement is one most objectionable feature.

We had hoped that our candidates would give no pledges. If the people will not place confidence in the integrity of a man, and his disposition to do the right without having him bound by pledges and promises, three-fourths of which must be broken as has been the case before, it is better not to be successful.

FRAZER RIVER.

The Steamers Pacific and Panama arrived at San Francisco, on Friday last, from Puget Sound; bringing intelligence of a very dampening character to the gold fever raging throughout the country. No gold came down on these Steamers, either as freight or in the hands of the passengers. Miners were camped upon the rivers, waiting for the water to go down, when they expected to do something. About 3000 are encamped near Fort Hope.

Provisions are very high; every thing is in the hands of the Hudson Bay Company. The gold stories are altogether improbable. Parties who went from San Francisco to Victoria, prepared to buy gold dust, have returned, and state that none none is to be had. The reported richness of the mines, is imaginative, rather than a reality.

From all that can be gathered of the latest and most reliable intelligence is, that the Frazer river excitement is but a second edition of that of Kern river.

"Bohemian," a contributor to the Wide West makes some desperate efforts to get off a little wit, in the description of a recent trip made by him to Yo Semite Valley. It is of a piece with most of the jargon usually inflicted on the reading public, by the "Mugginses" who, in place of telling simply what they saw of Nature's handy-work on such occasions, branch off into the "thifalutin," and make the effort to impose their "bosh" upon the public as a description of the Valley. God forbid that the hand of any love-sick, would-be "Pock," should attempt to improve his works—the more so, since every fellow thinks he is a descriptive writer, and can add to natural beauty, by giving us the "namby pamby" of his brain.

Tourists, are hereby informed, that when visiting the Yo Semite Valley, and afterwards writing descriptions thereof, that a simple narration of facts, is better than all the embellishments that the best writer could add, let alone the "small fry" who figure in our cotemporaries. Come down, "Bohemian," to earth, and tell of the "Falls," the "Cliffs," the "Scenery," and let us hear nothing of "Saw Mill," little of "Canadian," and a modicum of "Miss Di." Do this, and you may tell so near the truth, that persons may be really desirous to visit the Valley.

Fire.—The Steam Saw Mill of J. C. Lamon & Co., on Bear Creek, four miles from Mariposa, was burned on Sunday morning last, at about 2 o'clock.—Work had been suspended but a short time, and it is supposed the fire caught from cinders having fallen in the saw dust. The flames had progressed so far before discovery, that it was impossible to check them. Loss $12,000.

Strike.—The Stockton Argus says that the crew of the steamer Sonora, as she was about starting with her Atlantic passengers, struck for higher wages on account of the Frazer river excitement.—They succeeded in their demands; the proper crew receiving $100 the round voyage, about one month, and the firemen $125—higher wages than ever before known on this coast.

☞The new steam Quartz Mill of Messrs. Goodman, Diltz & Co., on Whitlock's, will be in operation the present week. The mill has, we understand, 12 stamps, and is constructed upon the most improved plan, and has the latest improvements. Particular attention has been given to the amalgamating machinery, and it is thought to be superior to any in the county. This firm is the most practical and as well as one of the most enterprising companies engaged in Quartz mining in this region.

SNUBBED.

For some reason, altogether unaccountable to us, the Gazette does'nt seem to stand in very high favor with the presidents, directors, and general managers of certain parties: one of which is the Democracy, and the other the Miners and Settlers Party or Association. The proceedings of meetings, resolutions passed, of either party, are generally ordered to be published in the Mariposa Star and Mariposa Democrat.

Now, we do not wonder at, nor object to, the preferment of these journals. Eminently distinguished Democrats, like the proprietors of the Star and Democrat, who have fought, bled, and been slewed many times in the cause, and whose efficient services are well known, should certainly receive the compliments of the party; particularly they should receive the patronage which is renumerative; and in such case we should have no expectations. But inasmuch as all this publishing, not only of the doings of the Democracy, but of the Miners and Settlers, including the long and heavy articles in the Democrat, devoted to the demolition of Fremont and his Grant, is performed for nothing, we think we were entitled to some notice and a share in such public service. A part of those articles referred to, could just as well been sent to the Gazette, as anywhere else.

But we more particularly blame the Democracy.—We were inveigled by some prominent Democrats about here, into a "Literary Society," some time in the fall of '55, whose object it was to overthrow the Democratic party. In that "society" we found many now leading Democrats, working with a will, and we may say with great success. The object was accomplished, the seed sown produced fruit an hundred fold; Johnson, the Know-Nothing candidate for Governor, was elected, and nearly a clean sweep of County officers took place. Know Nothingism was triumphant. Prior, however, to the election, many having received no preferment or consideration at the hands of the "U. X. L.'s" which would lead them to suppose that they might in the future fill distinguished positions in the party, suddenly found out that they were not in a literary society, and that they were full blown Know-Nothings. To extricate themselves from this predicament, they rushed in holy horror to an opposite extreme, and desired to to get into the embraces of the "red mouthed," &c.—as they called them a short time before. They had dosed people with Know Nothingism—now they propose to ladle out Democracy.

But without pursuing this subject further at present, we would say that this set of men, and they exist throughout the county, and as for that, throughout the State, shall never dictate Democracy to us. We do not regard them as the Chief Priests, or the Elders, or the Rabbi's of the party, and their close communion-oligarchical Democracy, we heartily despise. Although we may be considered a Democratic infant in swaddling clothes, we want no wet nurses of the above description about, to administer suck or trowingly withhold it, as their own narrow contracted policy and views might dictate. We have been trying to be a Democrat a long time, and may make it out yet; but because we have followed afar off, in the opinion of some, we are "snubbed." Thank you!—Gentlemen, if some of you don't get snubbed, you will be in luck.

Fights.—On Tuesday evening of last week, a difficulty took place between a Frenchman and a countrywoman, regarding their domestic affairs. The affectionate husband in undertaking to correct his "better half," let drive a brick at her, and she in her frenzy, thinking it would destroy some of the furniture, jumped before it, receiving the missile on the upper part of her body. Her cries of murder soon brought a crowd to the scene of action, but the husband made tracks, the crowd following, who soon overtook and brought him back. He was taken before Justice Washburn, but no one appearing against him, he was allowed to "walk Joe bone."

Another fight occurred on Friday Evening, at the corner of Main and Fifth streets, between a couple of "Parley Voos." The nature of the difficulty we were unable to learn. No serious damage was done to either "phiz."

Another affray of a serious nature, took place on Friday afternoon last, on "Fremont Gulch," a short distance above Bondurant's Quartz Mill, between Lewis Mail and "Old Lewis," two colored men. A dispute arose about the discovery of a piece of quartz containing a large amount of gold. The latter went to the place where the former and his partner were at work and claimed the quartz by right of discovery. The former denied it, stating that the ground belonged to himself and partner. Angry words ensued, and on "Old Lewis" assuming a belligerent attitude, Mail picked up a shovel and struck his antagonist several times on the head with its blade, inflicting a number of severe gashes. Mail was immediately arrested and taken before Justice Norris, who required bonds in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next Court, to answer to the charge of assault and battery with intent to commit bodily injury.

Shooting.—An Italian, known as Frank, was badly shot in Carson's, on Saturday night last. The shot was fired from the house of a Mr. Guiball—by whom, it is not known. The man shot was, or had in the afternoon, been drunk and troublesome, and had conducted himself improperly before Mrs. G. It is asserted that he was endeavoring to get into the window at the time he received the injury; but this is denied by Mr. Frank, who says he was walking along the street quietly when he was made a target of. An examination will show the facts probably.

Rich Quartz.—A Quartz Boulder weighing 240 lbs., and estimated to contain over $1000, was found on Wednesday morning last, near Judge Bondurant's Quartz Mill, a short distance from town. The finder was "Lucky Bill Blixen," who has picked up in quartz rock about this place, at different times, within the last few years, more than $10,000.

☞There will be a celebration in Yo Semite Valley, on the "glorious 4th," as our readers will observe by reference to the advertisement in our columns. A more suitable occasion to visit the Valley, will not occur at present.

Another Rich Quartz Claim.—Another rich quartz lead has been discovered at Whiskey Hill, near Jamestown, by a Mr. Capp. The Sonora Herald says that two sacks of Mr. C.'s richest quartz of 100 lbs. weight, yielded him $1000.

Personal.—Mr. L. P. Fisher, of San Francisco, widely known as the advertising Agent of most country papers in this State, arrived in this place on Saturday from Yo Semite Valley, whither he had been for recuperation and the improvement of his health. This object was in a measure attained, as we are happy to learn.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

On Friday evening last, an exhibition, for making further additions to the Sunday School Library, took place at the Methodist Church South. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Lockley. The precocity exhibited by many of the children, showed the great advantages to be derived from an early Sunday School education. In a thinly peopled county like this, where so few schools exist, it is difficult for every parent to find it convenient to send their children to such places of instruction, but those who live in close proximity to our houses of worship, can have no apology for keeping them at home.

Our Teachers have labored hard in bringing it to its present perfection, and it is nothing more than the duty of parents to see that their children attend—that they may have the benefits of social intercourse, besides the rudiments of education.

The exercises of the children, were under the supervision of Mr. Wm. A. King and Miss Olive Bedford, our present efficient and deserving Sunday school teachers.

The following suitable and appropriate address was delivered by Miss Adelia Ann Terry:

Dear Friends and Parents:—We are glad that you have come to see us on this interesting occasion; and we hope you will not feel sorry that you have come. We have invited you in, at this time, that you may know, by our good conduct, and by the improvement that we have made, that our time has not been wasted, and the privileges you have so kindly provided for us, have not been abused. If we have not always done as well as we possibly could, we are sorry for it; and we will try—and try hard—to do better for the future; and if we try—and keep trying—we shall, without doubt, succeed.

But we do feel that we have done some things well; and that we have learned a great many useful lessons. Besides what we have learned from our books, our kind teachers have told us many things which will be valuable to us, if we remember them. For all that they have done for us, we thank them from our young and tender hearts, and feel that God will bless them too. But we hope you will not expect too much from us.

Please to remember that we are but children; and that our performances will be marked by the errors of childhood. We trust that the exercises to which you may listen, will be interesting to you, and profitable to the School of which we are members; and, with many thanks for your past goodness, we be speak your future interest and attention.

The Speaking, Recitations and Dialogues, by the children, were really creditable, and would have reflected honor on older heads. Every person appeared satisfied with the entertainment.

Temporary Injunction on the Fremont Mariposa Claim.—A temporary injunction was granted, in the U. S. Circuit Court, on Monday, in the case of John C. Fremont, restraining the "Merced Mining Company" from cutting any more timber on the land claimed by Fremont, in Mariposa Co. The Company is, however, allowed to carry away the wood already cut—several hundred cords, as is said; and the injunction prayed for was, so far, refused. The following order, we find in the Bulletin, was entered:

On reading the bill of complaint, heretofore filed in this action, and also the affidavits filed on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants respectively, and on application of Hall McAllister, of counsel for complainant, the defendants having had due notice of said application, and appearing, by Cook & Fenner, their solicitors, and opposing the same, ordered: That on complainant filing a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to the approval of the Clerk of this Court, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that the complainant shall pay to the defendants, or to any one or more of them, all damages, not exceeding the sum of five thousand dollars, which they, the defendants, or any one or more of them, may sustain, by reason of the injunction hereafter granted, if this Court shall finally decide that the complainant was not entitled thereto; an injunction issue in this case, pursuant to the prayer of said bill, and to remain in force until the further order of this Court in the premises, except so far as concerns the timber or wood already cut, as to which no injunction shall issue. Either party to be at liberty to apply to this Court, or to a Judge thereof, at chambers, to increase or diminish the penal sum of said bonds.

A Hint to Physicians.—The recent discovery of gold in Puget Sound, besides being a benefit to the miners, has opened up a new field for this class of professional men, and will, in all probability, be a better country for their practice than the healthy and bracing climate of California. The Puget Sound Herald of June 4th, says:

There is not in the whole of Pierce county a practising physician. Dr. Tolmie, of the Hudson's Bay Company, and Dr Webber, are both occupied with other business, and have no time to practice; and Dr. Wirtz, of the army, on account of his engagements at the garrison, positively refuses to attend to patients in civil life. We have a population of over eight hundred souls, exclusive of Indians; and, although our climate is comparatively healthy, there is still a large amount of sickness. Any thoroughly educated physician, who is also an adept in surgery and midwifery, can make in Steilacoom and the surrounding country, from $1,500 to $2,000 a year, at the very least, and an intelligent medical friend of ours tells us that he thinks the practice of the county would be worth $3,000.

☞Woman is, or should be considered the highest point of humanity. Is not her life here upon earth a mission of love, charity and forbearance? Does not lead man by the higher law of his nature?—Hesperian.

The Trinity Journal retorts thus: "An' yes, an' has'nt she sometimes taken him by the tap av the hid, an' led him to the doore, and said 'scat ye drunken baste—out o' this ye murtherin' thafe o' the worrold; and it ye come back in that condition its Biddy herself that'll be after latherin' the divil's own daylights out av ye! Och, gregalach!"

Burglar Killed.—Sheriff Sedgewick was informed that a gang of thieves were prowling about Sonora, and for him to be on the lookout for them. About a week ago, the Sheriff and his Deputies detected three of them entering the house of Howland & Collingwood. Two of the officers fired on them, killing one and wounding another. John A. Marshal, an escaped convict, is the name of the individual killed.

Rather Mixed.—Mr. Joseph Lovett writes from Port Townsend to a friend, and former business partner in San Francisco, that "things in the mines are rather mixed." He had just returned from an excursion up the river, and advises his friend and others not to leave a good business with a view to improve their fortunes in the new diggings.

☞The Alleghanians gave a musical entertainment at Concert Hall, in this place, on Thursday Evening. A fair audience was in attendance, and all were pleased—we might say, delighted. The only dissatisfaction expressed was, that their stay was so short; and it is to be hoped that they will visit us again. Wherever they may go, they cannot but please, as vocalists, as well as in demeanor, the characteristic of respectability.

The Fourth of July.—Arrangements have been made for the appropriate celebration of this National Holiday in Mariposa, although our citizens are somewhat out of condition, owing to the late fire. A programme of Exercises will be found in another column.

☞We are indebted to Mr. J. B. Condon, for numerous favors received during the past week.

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE

THE GAZETTE.

COOLIE CONSCIENCES.—Of all the nefarious trades in which man ever engaged, (says an exchange paper,) the Coolie trade is the most revolting. Its barbarities surpass the horrors of the "middle passage;" and yet those who are most active in its prosecution are citizens of the nations from which we hear the loudest outcries in behalf of humanity and freedom. We hear of these wretched beings dying on the prolonged passage from Asia to the Atlantic coast, of hunger, thirst, and the foulest diseases engendered by close confinement, without air or proper nutriment, in the holds of ships. We are told of these unfortunates murdering one another in the agony of their desperation; and although the thing is plain and palpable, the evidence of its existence unquestioned and undeniable, civilized Europe shuts its eyes, pockets the gains, and balances her sin-ledger by shrieking out her virtuous indignation at the wickedness of American slave-holding. She swallows the Coolies and the cotton very well herself, but wonders how Brother Jonathan can digest such horrible things!

BIG CITIES OF THE NORTH.—A brisk discussion is going on in our columns, says the Bulletin, as to what are to be the BIG CITIES on the Puget Sound waters.—Whatever be the fate of Victoria—which will no doubt rise to more or less eminence as a British port—there will undoubtedly be a great seaport town (if not more than one,) established on the American side. Among the competitors are Whatacome and Schome on Bellingham Bay, Port Townsend on the west side of the Sound waters, Steilacoom and Seattle on the east side, and half way up the Sound, and Point Roberts, a few miles below the mouth of Frazer River, near the boundary line of 49 degrees. Besides those places, others may hereafter be brought into notice. It is hard at the present moment to say which locality is to be the site of the future great sea-port. Meanwhile, some speculators will likely lose largely, and others, more lucky in their perhaps haphazard choice, will gain great sums. As to the new Sacramento, Stockton and Marysville of the mines—the interior large towns—the future is as yet a blank. Real estate speculators have an anxious time before them.

☞" THE Mountain Democrat says that an "honest miner" recently visited Placerville for the purpose of "having a time" with the boys. After travelling about awhile, and getting pretty well "how come you so," he started for his cabin, to reach which he had to pass through a dense forest. We will let the Democrat tell the rest of the story: "It is unnecessary to follow the poor fellow through all his trials and mishaps on that memorable night; suffice it to say that, while in that dismal forest, he fell into eight prospect holes, and strange to say, every hole was similar to the first. 'Worn out with vain pursuits,' he finally laid down at the foot of a tree to wait for daylight. When daylight came and soberness returned, the fellow discovered that he had been continually tumbling into the same hole. To use his own language: 'about that hole there was nothing to be seen but blood, hair, and the ground torn up!'"

ELEVEN FIGHTS AND SOME SHOOTING.—On Geddes Creek, near Slate Mountain, El Dorado County, says the Placerville Index, recent gold discoveries have been made which proves that these diggings are exceedingly rich. The usual average per day is from $8 to $12 to the hand.—This has induced many to go there, and already a flourishing mining camp has started. It appears that there is a large company of stalwart Norwegians mining on Geddes, and of them the Index tells the following tale:—

"The other day, one of these Northmen got ready to leave for home. His countrymen assembled for the purpose of bidding him good-bye. There were ten men in the party, and they drank precisely ten bottles of gin. Of course, the whole party got tight. When ten men get drunk together, something is sure to turn up. Somebody got mad and hit somebody, so at it they went. The fight lasted for several hours. In fact, it was a succession of fights, or, in the language of our informant, there was in one evening, "eleven fights and some shooting." Result—a half score of bloody mugs.

NEW CUSTOM.—Gentlemen in San Francisco are adopting the ladies fashion of wearing vails. The "lokul items" of the Talk saw a gentleman in the streets with one tied around his hat, and tucked up on top of the brim. He had it ready for use when the heavy winds, now so common, should commence their daily riot, playing the mischief with eyes of men and the skirts of ladies. He was a brave man to take initiative in a very necessary custom, and one, we understand, quite common in Australia, but at the same time, calculated to make those who first adopt it become objects of ridicule.

SETTLED AT LAST.—JAMES COLLIER, brother of JOHN A. COLLIER, has just had a long lawsuit decided in his favor. Mr. C. was appointed Collector of Customs to California. After leaving office, the Government claimed that he was defaulter to the amount of $791,000. The Government sued him, and the verdict resulted in his favor. The case was appealed. It was finally disposed of last month, the Court deciding that instead of Mr. C. owing the Government $791,000, the Government owed him $8,000. Quite a difference!

☞ If you observe a gentleman with his arm round the waist of a young lady, it is morally certain that they are not married.

FEMALES WANTED.—In Australia, says the Melbourne Age, a large proportion of the laboring classes are fast approaching to utter destitution. Mechanics are nearly in the same category—their wages figure largely per diem, yet the weekly result makes but a sorry figure; they are nothing like fully employed.—Females are in good demand; wages exhorbitantly high—in many instances they get more than men.

DEPARTURE OF THE SONORA.—The steamship Sonora left San Francisco on Monday, 21st inst., with passengers and mails for the East. She had but 200 passengers, the smallest number that has left for the Atlantic States at any time during the last eight years. She also took $1,857,795 in treasure, being several hundred thousand less than the amount taken by the previous steamer.

HO FOR FRAZER RIVER!—A STUDY.—The Siskiyou Chronicle says:

A little short-tailed pony, in a train by itself, was driven through the city by its owner on foot, one of the hottest days this week, and headed across Yreka creek for the Northern mines. A rear view of this little caravan and of the articles of freight in sight was characteristic of gold excitements. The load was made up of a sack of flour as the foundation; then on one side a roll of blankets, balanced by a sack probably containing staple groceries, sugar, coffee, beans, etc.; over the top was tied a camp kettle, a frying pan, a small sack of fruit, hatchet, tin cup and gold pan.

☞ Dr. L. J. Czapkay.—We would direct the especial attention of Invalids to the perusal of Dr. L. J. Czapkay's advertisement, to be found in another column of this paper, to place the services of a learned and experienced Physician within their reach. So much ill has been inflicted upon the human family from the pernicious and ignorant practices of impirics, that it seems as if we were fulfilling a bounden duty to make known where judicious relief can be obtained. To those unfortunate enough to suffer from the effects of sexual or private diseases, or other ill treatment, we cheerfully commend Dr. L. J. Czapkay as a man of rare scientific and medical acquirements. Possessing all the requirements, from long experience and acknowledged skill, for the successful practice of his profession. Having made sexual complaints his especial study, like the celebrated Ricord of Paris, he is enabled to guarantee a speedy and permanent cure in all cases of private or chronic diseases, whether the effect of contagion, self-abuse, or loss of virility, and in order that patients at a distance may avail themselves of his advice, free consultation by letter is open to them. The knowledge we have of the numerous cures he has effected, some of which were of long standing, leads us to place much faith in Dr. C's efficacy, and commend him to the confidence of those in ill health. d9

Notice to Tourists.

Shortest, Cheapest, and Speediest

Route to Yo Semity Valley.

PERSONS designing to visit the far famed and justly celebrated Yo Semity Valley during the present Summer, are informed that the ROUTE BY WAY OF MARIPOSA is now open, and may be traveled with ease and safety in one day and a half. This route lies through a country abounding in WILD AND ROMANTIC SCENERY.

Near the South Fork of the Merced, are beautiful MEADOWS, where the Traveler will Encamp for the night. Ample accommodations will be furnished by Mr. Galen Clark, who occupies the Meadows at this point. A short distance from this camping ground, is situated the MAMMOTH TREE GROVE, containing Over Five Hundred Trees, equalling or exceeding in size and beauty any yet discovered in California.

A GOOD BRIDGE here crosses the River, from whence to the Valley the distance is nineteen miles, over a GOOD MOUNTAIN TRAIL.

When the traveler reaches the descending point to the Valley, the view of "Inspiration Point" which very few persons have ever witnessed, would amply repay the visitor for the trip.

The Scenery in the Valley is beyond description, abounding in Magnificent Water Falls and precipitous heights, towering from 2,000 to 4,000 feet above the bed of the Valley.

As a pleasant summer excursion, the trip to the Yo Semite cannot be excelled—while the route by the Mariposa Trail, which is superior to that of the Coulterville route, as every one can testify who have traveled both, offers attractions and inducements superior to any other.

Visitors from San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton, and other parts of this State, who intend visiting the Valley by the Mariposa Route, will please direct a line the undersigned, who will have horses and a guide in readiness to conduct them to the Valley without any unnecessary delay.

Horses will be furnished at half the usual price heretofore charged.

☞ Letters directed to A. J. MANN,
je9-tf. Mariposa.

HO! FOR YO SEMITY VALLEY!

PERSONS proposing to visit this most Extraordinary Natural Scenery, during the present season, are informed that ample preparations have been made by the undersigned for the accommodation and convenience of all who may take the

to that place.

The distance to the Valley, is about forty-five miles, and is as short as any route that has a Stage connexion with Stockton.

This route abounds with varied and remarkable Scenery. The Trail, made at a great expense, is in excellent condition, and there is not a dangerous place upon the whole of it. A GOOD BRIDGE spans the only stream of consequence to be crossed on the route.

At the South Fork of the Merced, the usual terminus of the first day's travel from Mariposa, the traveler is within THREE MILES of the

Mammoth Tree Grove,

Which contains over

FIVE HUNDRED TREES!

Some of them are the largest now known. To this Grove, from the crossing of the South Fork, is a good Trail. Thus, upon this route are all the attractions of a visit to the Big Trees in Calaveras combined, with a view of the WONDERS OF YO SEMITE VALLEY!

The second day's journey is an easy one of twenty miles. Before descending into the Valley, the traveler may pass up its entire length upon the Southern side and look from perpendicular precipices at the Valley, lying more than FOUR THOUSAND FEET BELOW.

For conveniences and extended accommodations to be procured, as well as for the superior attractions of the route, Mariposa is the most eligible and best point of departure.

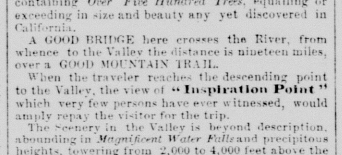

At the Union Hotel, or at the Stables of Messrs. Gregory and Barbour, in Mariposa, travelers will receive the necessary attentions, conveniences and information for the trip.

Guides will be furnished if desired. Parties of citizens, familiar with the Route, Valley and requirements of the journey, are frequently going, and strangers can hardly miss of companionable company for the present upon this route.

☞ Application to be made to Mr. F. Williams, at the Union Hotel, or to Messrs. Gregory and Barbour, at their Stables, Main street, Mariposa, will meet with prompt attention.

SICK CALIFORN...

Ask Nones Appeal to all with but or failing Health!

ARE YOU LANGUID, INANIMATE, RESTLESS, APPETITE POOR, DIGESTION BAD, and PAINS IN THE LIMBS, BODY, BACK and HEAD? Reader, much of this is caused from COLD caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, SLUGGISHNESS OF THE LIVER, and BLOOD, and WANT OF NATURAL PERSPIRATION, or secretion in the use of Food and Drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the Acute, Violent and Sudden Deaths that occur may be attributed to this. Now, reader, I here must tell my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the LIVER, BLOOD, and BRAINS; it strengthens the NERVES, and gives to the sufferer a LIGHTNESS OF SPIRITS, a MENTAL and BODILY FEELING OF STRENGTH, that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by, and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Loss of Muscular or Bodily and Mental Energy; Fever, Ague, or Chills; Rheumatic, Neuralgic or other Pains; Depletion and Weakness of the Natural Functions, Debility from Disease, Dissipation, too much Doctoring, Debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant Intemperance, and where Delerium Tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor REGRETS DEEPLY that it is necessary thus to ADVERTISE it, in order that its merits may be known.

Constitutional Weakness.

DEBILITY FROM DISEASE, CLIMATE, DISSIPATION OR DEBAUCHERY—Strength, vivacity and vigor to the limbs, body and mind, is given by DR. JACOB WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL—it sends an electric thrill of life through the worn-out body, weak limbs and broken-down constitution; gives an appetite, removes Dyspepsia, calms irritability, causes quiet sleep, and is indeed the finest tonic, Nervine, and Sanguifier ever made. It is purely a vegetable compound, and can be used by the most delicate.

Cure for Intemperance.

THE APPETITE FOR LIQUOR DESTROYED.—One of the beautiful properties possessed by DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL, is that it removes all longing or taste for liquor. Many inebriates have found that after it has renewed and strengthened them, quieted their nerves, it has caused aversion to spirits. I have seen it cure some of the most frightful cases, where delerium tremens has actually occurred.

The root lathers in the mouth, cleanses the tongue, throat, etc., is delicious to the taste, and the best dentrifice made to whiten the teeth.

If you want a fine, white and clear skin, or the best Shaving Soap made, try Jones' Italian Chemical Soap; it makes the coarsest and most discolored skin smooth, white and fine, and raises a splendid lather for shaving, and is fine for washing infants.

Important to All Concerned!

Furniture and Bedding
MANUFACTORY & STORE.

I WISH TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC TO THE FOLLOWING:

Having been taught by experience and loss, that it will be more prudent to work at CHEAPER rates, and get paid for my work, than to charge higher prices and thus make honest customers pay for those that don't, I have came to the conclusion that in future I SHALL DO NO MORE WORK ON A CREDIT. No exception will be made to this rule; friends as well as strangers are expected to pay cash or its equivalent on delivery.

☞On the other hand, I am willing to do the same when purchasing.

Those that are indebted to me now, will assist me considerably in paying my old debts, by settling theirs.

In addition to the above, I would state that I am able and prepared to do any kind of work that can be made of wood, from the roughest Carpenter's work to the most Artificial work, including TURNING, CARVING, PAINTING, PAPER HANGING and GLAZING.

A limited assortment of Furniture constantly kept on hand, which will be sold hereafter at reduced prices.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

GRAND MEDICAL & SURGICAL INSTITUTE,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established in 1854, for the Permanent Cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, and the suppression of quackery.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, and late Lecturer on diseases of Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his institute for the cure of all forms of Private Diseases—such as syphilis gonorrhœa, nocturnal emissions, and all the consequences of self-abuse. In the first stages of syphilitic or gonorrheal diseases, he guarantees a cure in a few days, without inconvenience to the patient or hindrance to his business. When a patient, by neglect or improper treatment, has developed the symptoms of secondary syphilis, such as bubos, or painful swellings of the groins, or ulcers in the throat or nose, which if not checked, destroy the soft parts and cause the bones to mortify, separate and come away, leaving the sufferer hideous to behold; or when blotches and pimples break out upon the skin, or when he has painful swellings upon the bones, or when his constitution is injured so as to predispose to consumption or constitutional diseases the Doctor guarantees a cure or asks no compensation.

In Rheumatism, chronic or acute, in Dysentery or Diarrhœa, he has safe and effectual remedies. For the treatment of the consequences of self-abuse, such as nocturnal emissions, nervousness, timidity, headache, pains in the back and limbs, with general weakness, loss of appetite, loss of memory, injury to the sight, restlessness, confusion of ideas, dislike for society, and a feeling of weariness of life, with the nervous system so excitable that slight noises shock or startle the patient, making his existence miserable. For the above maladies the Doctor will guarantee a cure or ask no compensation. He can be consulted free of charge, and invites all to call, as it will cost them nothing, and may be much to their advantage.

A Tribute to Merited Worth.

☞A TESTIMONIAL RICHLY MERITED.—The ingratitude of man to his fellow man is so often met with in life, that testimonials, prompted by the finer feelings of the heart, are oasis in the life of those who sacrifice their best days in philanthropic devotion to the alleviation of the ills of frail mortality. Empiricism floods the columns of our press with fraudulent and fictitious letters; singing peans to the worth of their own egotistical charlatanism. Below we append a letter from a worthy man, who, a brief period since, seemed destined to "shuffle off this mortal coil," who looked forward to his dissolution with that pleasure which only those weighed down by the heavy hand of disease can. Contrary to hope, the ability of a skillful physician has restored him to his former health. Relieved from his terrible situation, and impelled by gratitude, he makes known his case and remedial agent, and his statement is authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command its publicity; and it is given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a physician of whom scores of like cases can be cited:

CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind; unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicines would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself implicitly under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and groins; the weakness of my limbs; the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement; the misanthropy and evil forebodings; the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution; the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the Doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand.

With a view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured, by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected. B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco. Subscribed and sworn before me, this 5th day of April, 1856. (Signed) JOHN MILLETON, [L. S.]
Notary Public.

A CARD.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public, a case which deserves a high commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly and from some cause unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expense consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the failures which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (as I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of a physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render me assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the misery of my existence. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for all his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook the case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and to all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

[L. S.] MEYER YARKOSKY.

State of California, County of San Francisco.—Subscriged and sworn before me, this 1st day of August, 1856. GILBERT A. GRANT, [L. S.] Notary Public.

Greatest Discovery of the Age.

GREAT BLESSING TO MANKIND!—Innocent but potent! Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum, (self disinfecting agent,) a sure preventive against gonorrheal and syphilitic diseases, and an unsurpassed remedy for venereal, scrofulous, gangrenous and cancerous ulcers, fœtid discharges from the vagina, uterus and urethra, and all cutaneous eruptions and diseases. As inoculation is a preventive against small-pox, so is Dr. L. J. Czapkay's Prophilacticum a preventive against syphilitic and gonorrheal diseases. Although harmless in itself, it possesses the power of chemically destroying the syphilitic virus, and thereby saving thousands from being infected by the most loathsome of all diseases. Let no young man who appreciates health be without Dr. Czapkay's Prophilacticum. It is in very convenient packages, and will be found convenient to use, being used as a soap. Price $5. For sale at Dr. Czapkay's Private Medical and Surgical Institute, Sacramento Street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

All orders must be addressed to L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.
